

God is full of Grace!

Monthly Feature: Time to pack!!

And my God will supply every need of yours according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus – Phil. 4:19

It was one of the busiest Saturdays for me in recent memory. On Sunday I had a lesson to teach, a song service to lead, a devotional to lead, and a five-hour car drive to take. I had begun the day like I usually do: coffee, several chapters in my chronological Bible reading time (trying to get through the Bible about 3 times this year), and a little morning social media. I spent a little extra time praying because of the spiritual responsibility I had coming my way. Hours later, I was knee deep in

I've been doing quite a bit of driving over the last several months which makes for wonderful scenery most of the time

Revelation, reveling in the sure word of prophecy about the Eternal State. The music was up loud and I was talking to myself as I thought through the best way to phrase certain truths and themes that laid before me in the text. My phone buzzed and I saw an email had come through from one of my directors at ABWE Ron Washer. I waited to look at it because I felt I really needed to continue focusing on my passage in Revelation 21 and 22. Just a few minutes later, I decided I had better read it since it was from my director. At about 3:30 in the afternoon on March 9th, I read some of the greatest news I'd ever received!! Something I had prayed over for about four months. Something I had fretted and worried over.

As you all know, I have been on pre-field for about a year and a half, raising support for full-time ministry in Ghana, and, by God's grace, I am currently at 27% of my full-term budget. Several months ago, the opportunity was presented to spend a year short-term in Ghana to cover ministries that would otherwise have to stop while my co-workers, the Gelatts, come off the field on furlough. A short-term budget was quickly drawn up for me and I began to pray and plan to that end. As of the end of February, I was $500 a month short of my short-term budget.

This is Eyome and Kodzo. Two national believers in Ho who will be working with me when I arrive!

It was in the middle of my particularly busy day, that I received word from Ron about a donor that had generously decided to put up the remainder of the funds needed for me to spend a year in Ghana. I was completely overcome with emotion! I had so much to do, but couldn't sit down anymore. It took me about 30 minutes of elation, praise, joy, and a few tears, to be able to sit back down and focus on my work. Praise the Lord with me as I continue to thank Him for His provision!!

Please pray as I work out all the logistics of the trip. I do not have a date nailed down for leaving, but expect to leave in May, maybe sooner.

Please continue to pray that God would raise up supporters for my long-term goals in Ghana!
