

God is full of Grace!

Monthly Feature: Baptist Academy of Theology in Africa (BATA) workers

1 Timothy 2:2, “And what you have heard in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also.” This month, I want to formally introduce three of the men who, by God’s grace, are redeemed and serving in Ghana in my absence. These are the men with whom I’ve been able to work, teach, learn from, and spend life during my first term. I look forward to resuming that relationship when I return. These are the men I stay in constant contact with each month as I work the finances and keep their budget.

This is Dzakumah Eyome. He is 23 years old and has been around the BATA campus ministry work in Ho for the last several years. He lived in Kodzobi (10 minutes from the campus) and has sat under the teaching of God’s word both at BATA and a church nearby. He works on vehicles and machinery, and has, over the last three years, served as the primary mechanic at the BATA campus. He has been a wonderful blessing to the work as he has also been teaching the youth at Dzakpo Church and visiting the unreached Fulani in a Fulani “camp” about an hour trip the campus. He is currently living on the campus and continuing in those responsibilities.

Meet Prosper Amevor. He is 22 years old and is a part of the Grace Baptist Church plant in Ho. He’s been living in the dorms and working on the campus helping with upkeep. He has been a big part of campus ministry from BATA Kids Club to Youth Leadership Academy. He plays the piano for church and BATA events, loves to work with slide shows and spreadsheets, and is one of the youth leaders at Grace Baptist Church. He is currently attending school to finish his education.

Godsway Agbesi is pictured here. He is the oldest of the three at 25 years. As leader, he also lives and works at the BATA campus. Godsway has been a part of Grace Baptist for many years and has taken classes at the Bible school. He ministers at Grace Baptist Church and is in charge of BATA Kids Club on campus. He is attending Ho Technical University to further his education.

Thank you for your prayers for these men and for me! I am continuing to contact churches, raise support, and bug the FAA office for medical certification. Pray that the Lord will raise up monthly supporters according to His will so that I might return to Ghana to declare the gospel and make disciples of “all nations.”
