

A blessed Christmas to you from Ruth Haynie 2024

God answered my prayer for someone to do yard work for me. He provided 9-year-old Jude Lim. He mows and weed eats and carts wheelbarrow load of junk to the burn pile.

He helps me weed flower beds and fills the bird bath and bird feeders. I work with him when I can which is only when the weather allows. Praise the Lord for His provision.

The Lord also provided helpers for the Hot Springs Bible

Club. Sarah Kipp and her daughters Harmony and Daisy are faithful and consistent and also live nearby. Vanessa comes when she has a baby sitter for Eli. Others come when they are able.

Joy Baxter did a formal “tea” for my regular helpers in November.

We each had our own tea pot, tea cup, and choice of tea.

There was golf ball size hail this summer that did a lot of damage. The roof was repaired by Tod Hartman's crew.

Isaac Stanley repaired the porch roof and the carport roof and the window screens and other odds and ends. His brother, Zeke, helped him with the carport roof.

The Ladies Bible study always does a birthday for each lady. This was Kathy Sterle's birthday. We are currently studying Amos.

Bible Club is over Dec 10 for Christmas break and we will begin again in February. We have had about 20 kids except when someone is sick or out of town.

Ellie Driesenga, missionary to Brazil, came and showed the kids about what she does in her work in Brazil. She has been here on medical furlough for several months.

I am doing much better since I am now taking electrolytes. My family is all over the United States and I have no current pictures to include this year.

A wonderful Christmas.

May you spend much of your time serving God,

Love,

Ruth J. Haynie
